Board of Higher Education Student Member Application

For UMass Students Only

The Student Advisory Council (SAC) is an advisory committee to the BHE and is comprised of the student trustees and SGA Presidents from the community colleges, state universities and the University of Massachusetts. It is the responsibility of this Council to nominate the student member of the Board of Higher Education. As required by law, the Governor annually appoints the BHE student member on the basis of recommendations submitted by the SAC. The SAC will interview and nominate no more than three full-time undergraduate students for the Governor's consideration. You do not need to be a student trustee or SGA President to apply for this position.

Role of the student BHE Member:

- Serve on the Board of Higher Education
- Serve as serve as an ex officio, non-voting member the SAC Executive Committee

For the 2018-2019 academic period, the student member on the Board of Higher Education will be a representative from the UMass segment. Applicants for the Student Member of the Board of Higher Education must submit the following information:

1. Enrollment Verification: The Registrar must certify that you are enrolled as a full-time undergraduate student and that you meet the required standards for satisfactory academic progress at your institution.
2. Résumé: Please include information regarding your course of study, expected graduation date, employment history, and related activities and interests.
3. Three Personal References: References may be provided by a fellow student in a leadership role, college administrator, faculty member, or other professional who can attest to your attributes to serve in this capacity.
4. Statement of Purpose: This brief essay should summarize your interest in serving on the Board of Higher Education and demonstrate your understanding of this leadership role.
