

MASSACHUSETTS INCLUSIVE POSTSECONDARY EDUCATION PRESENTS

Emerging Trends 2025

A Conference on High-Impact College-Based Transition Services and Inclusive Postsecondary Education.

Hosted by the Department of Higher Education (MAIPSE) in collaboration with the Institute for Community Inclusion, Massachusetts Center for Inclusive Higher Education (IHE) and Transition

Highlighting emerging and evidence-based practices that promote career readiness and postsecondary education success for individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities

CONFERENCE GOALS

- » Share information on emerging and evidence-based inclusive postsecondary education policies and practices
- » Promote ideas, discussion, and collaboration among Massachusetts colleges, schools, adult agency partners, parents, and additional key partners
- » Highlight and inform students' postsecondary experiences
- » Facilitate networking and collaboration

KEYNOTE

Tom Sannicandro

Tom is a disability rights advocate, attorney, and former Massachusetts state legislator, with a career spanning over 20 years dedicated to empowering people with intellectual and developmental disabilities.

WEDNESDAY | JUNE 4
2025

CAMPUS CENTER

UNIVERSITY OF MASSACHUSETTS BOSTON
100 Morrissey Boulevard

THIS EVENT IS FREE!

This conference is ideal for educators, families, administrators, state agency representatives, and anyone involved in promoting inclusive postsecondary education and college-based transition services.

For more event information, including registration, visit Emerging Trends 2025.

Ashley Luce | Institute for Community Inclusion | Ashley.Luce@umb.edu
Mary Price | MAIPSE, Department of Higher Education | mprice@dhe.mass.edu

