NOT ALONE

The First Report of the White House Task Force to Protect Students From Sexual Assault

April 2014
"Perhaps most important, we need to keep saying to anyone out there who has ever been assaulted: you are not alone. We have your back. I’ve got your back."

President Barack Obama, January 22, 2014
It’s On US Initiative
I PLEDGE

To RECOGNIZE that non-consensual sex is sexual assault.

To IDENTIFY situations in which sexual assault may occur.

To INTERVENE in situations where consent has not or cannot be given.

To CREATE an environment in which sexual assault is unacceptable and survivors are supported.

Checklist for Campus Sexual Misconduct Policies

The Task Force to Protect Students from Sexual Assault is committed to supporting institutions of higher education in preventing sexual misconduct, encouraging reports of such misconduct, improving responses to reports of such misconduct, and complying with applicable federal laws.

The following checklist for sexual misconduct policies (checklist) highlights elements that are particularly important for institutions to consider when drafting sexual misconduct policies as part of their overall response to sexual misconduct. The Task Force recommends using this document as a guided checklist for developing effective sexual misconduct policies. However, the Task Force cautions institutions not to adopt the checklist, in part or in whole, without first engaging in a comprehensive drafting process that considers the unique aspects of the institution and its student body. The items listed in the checklist are intended to be guidelines, neither exhaustive nor exclusive, to help a school cover the important bases.

The policy of each institution will vary in detail, specificity, and components, reflecting differences in state or local legal requirements and each school’s students, size, administrative structure, and what it has learned from past experiences. Additionally, the checklist does not constitute legal advice or create additional legal obligations, and institutions that address these elements in their sexual misconduct policy, in part or in whole, may still be found to be in violation of federal law(s) (e.g., if the institution fails to effectively address a hostile education environment created by sexual misconduct).

Developing a K-12 Sexual Misconduct Policy

Considerations for School District Sexual Misconduct Policies

The Task Force to Protect Students from Sexual Assault (Task Force) is committed to supporting school districts (districts) in preventing sexual misconduct, encouraging reports of such misconduct, improving responses to reports of such misconduct, and complying with applicable federal laws.

This document highlights a number of issues that could be particularly helpful for districts to consider when drafting sexual misconduct policies as part of their overall response to sexual misconduct. The Task Force recommends using these factors as a guide for developing effective sexual misconduct policies. However, the Task Force cautions districts to engage in a comprehensive drafting process that considers the unique aspects of the district and its student body. The sexual misconduct policy of each district will vary in detail, specificity, and components, reflecting, for example, differences in state or local legal requirements and each district’s student population. While this document focuses on reporting options and support services for victims and the victim’s role in the grievance process, the Task Force recognizes that parental involvement at the K-12 level is critical and should be sought at all stages of the process for students who are minors.

Victim and Offender Alcohol/Drug Use Prior to Sexual Assault Incidents, 2015

Note: Responses based on survey item asking “In the hours prior to the incident, had you consumed alcohol or drugs? Please keep in mind that you are not responsible for what happened, even if you had been drinking or using drugs or given a drug without your knowledge or consent. Remember that your answers will remain completely confidential.” Responses do not sum to 100% due to missing data.

Victim Offender Relationship (female victims)
– Someone the victim knew casually is most common offender

*Someone else the victim knew includes someone the victim had seen or heard about but not talked to; an acquaintance, friend of a friend, or someone that the victim had just met; or a professor or teaching assistant.
Reporting Rates: Comparison of CCSVS and Clery Data

Number of Completed Rapes in the CCSVS and Clery Act, 2014/2015

- CCSVS: Completed Rapes, All: 2,380
- CCSVS: Completed Rapes, on Campus: 770
- CCSVS: Completed Rapes, Reported to School Authorities: 170
- CCSVS: Completed Rapes, on Campus and Reported to School Authorities: 60
- Clery Act: Completed Rapes, on Campus and Reported to School Authorities: 40
Victim disclosure and impact (female victims)

Students disclose to roommates and friends, not law enforcement or school officials – even though rape is highly upsetting. Friends need to know how to respond to disclosures.

% of Incidents the Victim Disclosed to...

- Roommate, friends, or family: 64% Rape Incidents, 66% Sexual Battery Incidents
- Any law enforcement official: 4.2% Rape Incidents, 1.1% Sexual Battery Incidents
- Any school official: 7% Rape Incidents, 3.4% Sexual Battery Incidents
- Any official: 12.5% Rape Incidents, 4.3% Sexual Battery Incidents
