Inclusive Access Survey

Thursday, September 22, 2022
Total Responses

DateCreated: Friday, February 11, 2022

Complete Responses: 23
Q2: To your knowledge, how would you describe the use of Inclusive Access (i.e., automatic textbook billing) at your institution?

Answered: 23  Skipped: 0

- Inclusive Access is used campus-wide
- Inclusive Access is used as a subset of courses on campus
- I’m aware of interest in Inclusive Access on campus, but not aware of its use
- I’m not aware of any interest or use of Inclusive Access on campus
- Not applicable
Q3: If you have inclusive Access at your institution, which provider has been engaged?

Answered: 10   Skipped: 13

- McGraw-Hill
- Cengage
- Pearson
- Follett
- Barnes & Noble
- VitalSource
- Redshelf
- Other (please detail who)
Q4: Who was included in the decision making process to engage Inclusive Access?

Answered: 6   Skipped: 17

- President
- Chief Financial Officer
- Chief Academic Officer
- General Counsel
- Faculty Senate
- Student Government
- Library
- Bookstore
- Education Technology
- Other (please add anyone missing from the choices provided)
Q5: If you have Inclusive Access at your institution, how are the access fees calculated?

Answered: 4   Skipped: 19

- A fee based on the cost of materials for each course
- A fee based on credit hours, units, or another fixed cost
- Included in base tuition
Q6: If you have Inclusive Access at your institution, how much is charged for Inclusive Access?

Answered: 3    Skipped: 20

- $50 - 100
- $101 - 125
- $126 - 150
- $151 - 200
- $201 +
Q7: Is the Inclusive Access program at your institution designed to be:

Answered: 4   Skipped: 19

- Opt-out
- Opt-in

[Bar chart showing the distribution of responses]
Q8: Are students informed about the cost of Inclusive Access materials when they register for the course(s)?

Answered: 6   Skipped: 17

- Yes
- No
- Not Applicable